How did you find out about us?

Online/Referral/Walk in: _____

How would you like to be compensated for your sold items?

I would like to be paid in store credit (50% to Consignor)

I would like to be paid by check for my items. (under $1000: 40% to Consignor, over $1000: 60% to Consignor)

The split percentages on luxury items are the same whether you choose to be paid in store credit or by check.

We have an online portal in which you can view a list of your items, their prices, and status (active, expired, sold). Access to this portal costs $1 per month, billed to your consignor account. You will not be billed for months you do not have active items. Would you like access to the Consignor Access Portal?

Yes

No

We will not contact you regarding the status of your items. A week prior to your expiration date, submit an item pickup request using the “contact” page of our website to collect anything left unsold. Your unsold items will be collected and ready for pickup within one week. We will hold these for one month from the date you contact us. If you fail to contact us or do not collect your items within one month, your expired items will become store property and may be donated to support local charity organizations. Please note: we do not keep dust bags/garment bags/boxes other than for luxury items. If you would like to keep these (in case your items do not sell), please take them with you at the time of drop-off.

- I understand that it is my responsibility to pick up unsold items on or before the expiration date if I would like them back or they will become property of Consign Couture.

Consign Couture will price your items for you based on current resale market value as this is a store where people seek beautiful pieces at affordable prices, and consignors receive a portion of that sale. We do not review prices with consignors before an item is listed. Your items will not sell for what they were originally purchased for and they may be marked down at Consign Couture’s discretion. $1 will be added to the cost of your item after it has been priced by our team. This helps cover administrative costs such as credit card fees and is not subject to the 40-60% split.

- I understand pricing for my item is determined by Consign Couture and subject to markdown

Checks will not be mailed. On the 10th of each month, payments in check form are available for pickup at the store where your items were consigned. Any check not picked up within 6 months will be forfeited because the bank will no longer cash them.

- I understand that I am responsible for picking up checks at the Consign Couture location where I dropped off my items

Not only is selling authentic items important to us, it is illegal to sell replica or counterfeit bags. We authenticate designer items through Authenticate First, a third party authentication service for luxury goods. If we pay to authenticate your item and it’s found to be counterfeit or you pick it up prior to the end of the 90 day consignment period, your consignor account will be charged the $20-30 authentication fee.

- I understand that I will be billed a $20-30 authentication fee for items I consign that are deemed to be counterfeit or items that I pick up prior to the end of the consignment period.

Although we do our best to safeguard your items, Consign Couture is not responsible for damage or loss due to theft, water, fire, or any other reason. Consigned merchandise later found to be unsuitable for sale may be donated automatically without prior consent.

- I understand Consign Couture will adhere to best practices to care for consigned pieces.
